HUBBARD'S HILL - RIVER LUD

Visitors to Hubbard's Hills are guaranteed a close encounter with beauty - squirrels jump between ancient trees and birds sing to one another as you pass below them in the valley, carved out by glacial overspill 40,000 years ago. But while some might spot wildlife on the calm River Lud as it meanders through the Louth hills, others claim to have seen something more unusual, a ghost.

The ghost of Hubbard's Hills is said to be a wandering soldier, in full uniform, walking with a dog at the top of the hill.

But who is he? And what is he doing in Hubbard's Hills?

The common story, passed from ghost hunter to ghost hunter, is that the apparition is a Scottish soldier who, a decade before the First World War, helped a woman who had lost her dog down a rabbit warren in the Hills.

The pair failed to rescue the dog, though it is said that they got on so well that they stayed in touch, and later fell in love.

Though the pair were married, the man was to outlive his bride - he lived until he was in his 90s, without his treasured wife.

Now it is said that the man walks with a dog atop the hill, wearing his uniform.

The history of Hubbards Hills

Swiss born Auguste Pahud moved to Louth in 1875 to take up duties as a German and French teacher at the grammar school. He married a local girl, Annie, daughter of William and Maria Grant. They were wealthy farmers living at the manor in Withern.

The trustees of Auguste Pahud bought Hubbard's Hills to honour his wish to create a memorial for Annie. They established an Edwardian pleasure garden with a lake, a country park and a memorial which was opened in 1907.

Louth Town Council are now the custodians of the Hubbard's Hill, Trust.

Matthew Flinders - 1774 - 1814

Born in Donington, Lincolnshire, England.
English navigator who charted much of the Australian coast.

Matthew Flinders miniature by H.G. de C.
Jones, after an oil painting by an unknown artist.
Courtesy of the National Portrait Gallery, London

In 1802 on board the ship "Investigator" Matthew Flinders circumnavigated Australia. Off the South coast he came across a chain of small islands, around 20 in all, in the waters of Spencer Gulf.

These islands were previously uncharted and therefore unnamed. naming the islands the explorers thoughts turned to home and he took inspiration from the area around Spilsby. The birth place of John Franklin another explorer.

Collectively the islands were given the title of Sir Joseph Banks Group after the famous Botanist and naturalist Joseph Banks from Revesby, a few miles from Spilsby and so the largest island was named Revesby Island. The names of some of the other islands will also sound very familiar; Spilsby, Stickney, Hareby, Dalby, Langton, Kirkby, Partney, Lusby, Winceby and Roxby.

The names of Lincolnshire towns and villages were also used along the coastline of the main land to the west of the islands, Tumby Bay, Point Bolingbroke, Louth Bay and Louth Island, Boston Bay and further south Port Lincoln which is now a large and important town in the region.

The Islands are 12 nautical miles east of Tumby Bay and are now acknowledged as a unique and important conservation park and Marine Sanctuary, providing an unspoilt breeding ground for a large variety of sea birds, seals, fish and dolphins.

Hensell Goat Rescue Care Farm

Community Interest Company, 15788003

Hensell Goat Rescue Care Farm CIC, located at Woodbine Cottage Farm in Sutton on Sea, Lincolnshire, was established as a sanctuary dedicated to rescuing and rehabilitating goats and other farm animals. The farm provides a safe haven for animals that can no longer be cared for by their previous owners, ensuring they receive the care and understanding they deserve.

Beyond animal rescue, Hensell Goat Rescue Care Farm offers therapeutic services to the community through animal-assisted therapy. Groups visit the farm to enjoy the green open space and interact with the goats, and the farm also organizes visits to care homes, residential homes, and hospitals, bringing comfort and joy through animal interaction.

The farm is open to the public on Saturdays and Sundays from 12pm to 4pm, offering visitors the opportunity to meet the animals and enjoy the peaceful environment. They also host special open days during the summer months, allowing visitors to explore the farm free of charge, including access to a picnic meadow and the scenic Sutton Branch line Footpath.

Hensell Goat Rescue Care Farm relies solely on fundraising events, donations, adoptions, and sales of giftware to support their operations. All contributions go directly to the care and welfare of the animals. They offer various ways for supporters to get involved, including adopting a goat, purchasing items from their fundraising shop, or making donations through their JustGiving page.

For more information about their mission, activities, or to

HOROSCOPE

ARIES You've been working especially hard lately, Aries, and now you may begin to reap the benefits of all your hard work. Some project that's dear to your heart may be nearing completion, and even you are impressed by the results! All those naysayers who said it would never work look at you with admiration. Give yourself a pat on the back. back accomplishment.

TAURUS Remember that there is a spirit in everything around you. Just because we can't perceive something with our eyes, ears, nose, mouth, or fingers doesn't mean that it doesn't exist. Pay respect to the force field that surrounds us, and to the animate and inanimate forms that exist in our everyday life.

GEMINI Emotional levels run high among members of a group you're affiliated with as disagreements turn into quarrels. Stay out of this - it won't do you any good. Write down your impressions and share them with the others at another time when tempers have cooled down. You might find yourself pushing towards attaining a personal goal.

CANCER You may find yourself staring at a blank page for what seems like hours on end while you try to get down on paper what you really want to say. Perhaps your motivation is flagging. Your mind is soaring in the clouds today, and it may be hard for it to keep on task with anything. You will find things seem to flow to completion on their own.

LEO Long distance phone calls from people living in distant states could bring some rather disconcerting news your way. This might arouse some anger within you, and you might be tempted to take it out on the caller. Don't do this! The person is probably only the messenger.

VIRGO Your generosity may be challenged, as someone around you asks for your help or your guidance. Sometimes you get preoccupied with events in your own life and don't realize that there are people around you who could use some support. Try to make time for friends today

LIBRA Preparation for group activities or other social events could have you in a bit of a dither, trying to keep track of everything that needs to be done. Don't get too frazzled. You'll manage to take care of everything! A large number of phone calls from friends or relatives probably won't help.

SCORPIO Someone who interests you may appear to be showing an interest in someone else. This could bring up your insecurities and cause a fit of jealousy. Don't make yourself crazy. All may not be as it seems. Try to discern the facts before letting the situation get the best of you.

SAGITTARIUS Something may be trying to lift you off the ground and carry your head up into the clouds. Go with it. Let your imagination run wild, and allow your creative nature to manifest. Try not to overindulge in food or drink, as it may be hard to control yourself once you get started.

CAPRICORN Overall, this should be a pleasant time for you, and you will find that you are properly recognized for the incredible person that you are. Be creative, honorable, and permissive with your rule.

AQUARIUS Your inner fantasy world is especially active. Feel free to delve into the depths of your imagination, as you do so well, but make sure that you leave the escape hatch open. Be careful about over-indulging in any sort of drug, including alcohol,

PISCES Make sure you have an equal amount of give versus take in your life. If someone gives you a compliment today, know how to receive it graciously instead of sloughing it off as something that is not very special or meaningful. At the same time, be generous with your compliments to others.

Funny Bits

Three drunks enter a taxi cab.

The taxi driver knew the men were drunk, so he started the engine and turned it off again. He told them, "We are here".

The first drunk passed over the fare money without question, and the second drunk said, "the third drunk knew what he had done, but he still asked "What was that for?"

The third drunk replied; "Control your speed next time, you almost got us killed".

After tucking her four year old into bed, during a violent thunderstorm, she was about to turn the light off when he said, "Mummy will you sleep with me tonight?"

"No darling I can't. I have to sleep with daddy".

To which the four year old replied, "The big whimper".

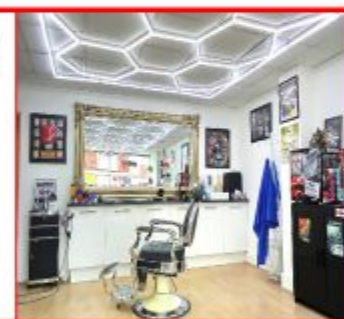

At times I think about the amount of wine I drink, and I really feel a shamed of myself. Then I look into the glass and think about the workers in the vineyards, and all their hopes and dreams. I then think that if I don't drink this wine, they could be out of work and their dreams would be shattered.

I then say to myself, "It is better that I drink this wine and let their dreams come true, rather than be selfish and worry about my liver."
